LAS ARENAS

INTRODUCTION

Las Arenas is an exclusive residential concept where space, light and lifestyle come together in perfect harmony.

Over 100 brand-new, beautifully built apartments designed to embrace outdoor living, with generous private spaces ranging from gardens and balconies to stunning rooftop terraces.

Set in Corralejo, the most sought-after area of the island, Las arenas rises just moments from the dunes.

Las Arenas offers a refined balance between nature, comfort and modern living. A place created not just to live in, but to truly experience every day.

REFINED LIVING SPACES

Las Arenas features beautifully designed apartments in two and three-bedroom layouts, with one or two bathrooms, including en-suite solutions. Interiors are bright, well-proportioned and conceived to offer comfort, privacy and a natural sense of flow.

With brand-new, fully equipped kitchens, contemporary bathrooms, built-in wardrobes and high-quality finishes, Las Arenas define a refined living environment. Double-glazed windows ensure excellent thermal and acoustic insulation, enhancing everyday comfort and wellbeing.

OUTDOOR LIVING

At Las Arenas, outdoor space is an essential part of everyday living. Each residence offers a generous private exterior, designed to extend the home beyond its walls and embrace the island's unique climate.

Depending on the level, residences feature expansive private gardens, spacious balconies or a refined combination of balcony and impressive rooftop terrace.

These spaces are designed for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying life under the sun — from quiet mornings to sunset evenings, all in total comfort.

THREE WAYS TO EXPERIENCE LAS ARENAS

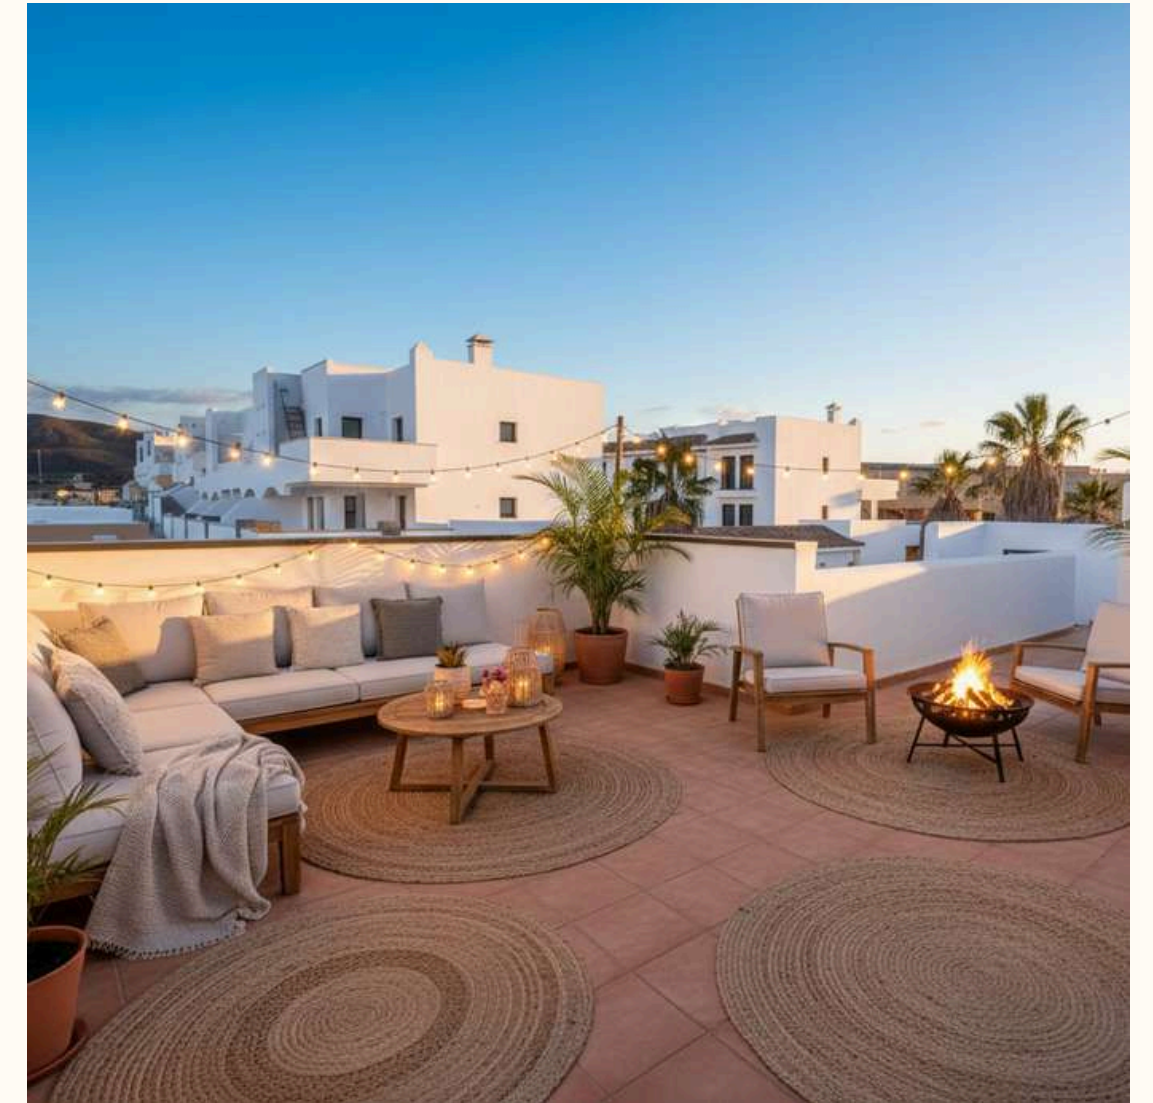

GROUND FLOOR

Private garden residences designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living, offering generous open-air spaces ideal for relaxing, entertaining and everyday comfort.

FIRST FLOOR

Bright and elevated homes featuring spacious private balconies, perfectly suited for enjoying the light, views and gentle island breeze.

LAST FLOOR

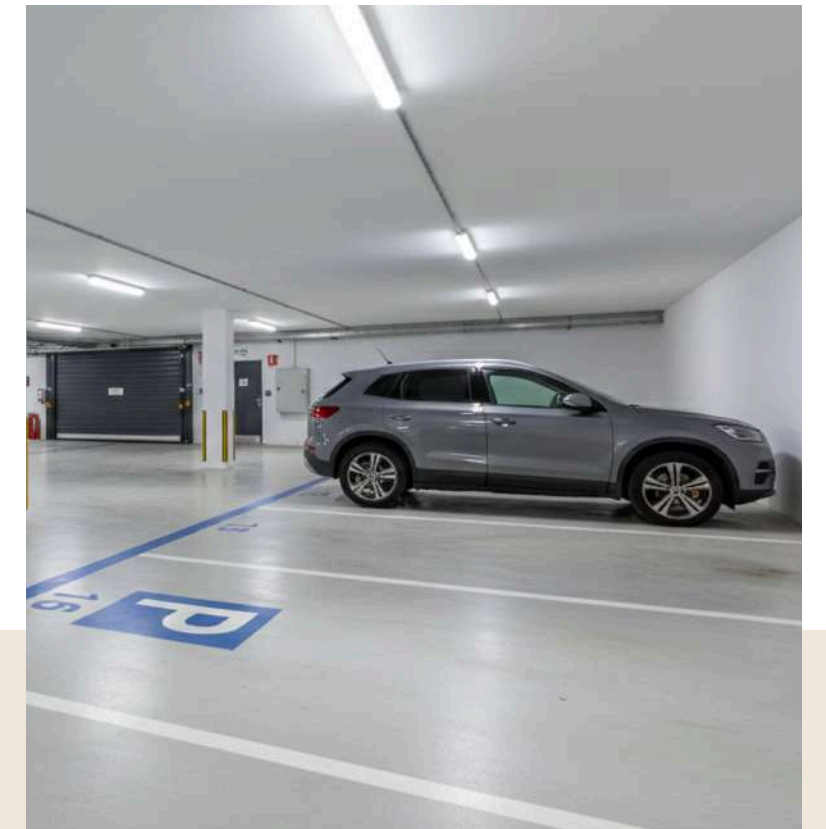

Exclusive homes combining a private balcony with a stunning rooftop terrace, creating a refined space for panoramic views, privacy and outdoor living at its finest.

LAS ARENAS

LIFE AT LAS ARENAS

Life at Las Arenas extends beyond the private residence into carefully designed shared spaces created for comfort, leisure and wellbeing. The gated community offers assigned parking for every home, with both underground and secure outdoor options within the complex.

Residents can enjoy a beautifully designed communal swimming pool, two padel courts and landscaped gardens maintained to the highest standards, creating a calm and welcoming environment throughout the year.

LIVING WITHOUT COMPROMISE

Las Arenas is designed for those seeking a modern, high-quality residence in one of Corralejo's most desirable locations.

It appeals to buyers who value new construction, high standards and the peace of mind that comes with efficient design, advanced systems and excellent energy performance.

This is a natural choice for those who prefer the comfort, reliability and long-term value of a brand-new home over older properties, offering a superior living experience in terms of efficiency, comfort and overall quality.

COMFORT IN NATURE

Las Arenas enjoys a privileged position in Corralejo, combining everyday convenience with the island's most iconic natural surroundings. Supermarkets and essential services are just moments away, while the spectacular Natural Park of the dunes lies only a short walk from the residences.

The lively heart of Corralejo is easily reached within a few kilometres, whether by bike or a relaxed ride, offering restaurants, shops and seaside walks without sacrificing peace and privacy at home.
